Run Down the Devil

Alice Cooper

It's twelve o'clock in the mornin' While everybody is sleepin' I want him dead in my head lights Cuz in the shadow he's creepin'Drive on down to lonely street He's always waiting there for me Run down the devil, run the devil down Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Run down the devil, run the devil down Run down the devil, run him down, down, down I want to take him to the Mercury grill I hope he's ready for the big blast He'll be my ultimate road kill I'll kick his future up his pastI'll send him back to hell alright The world can sleep in peace tonight Run down the devil, run the devil down Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Run down the devil, run the devil down Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Everybody's gotta hold him down Can't let Beelzebaby back in town Run down the devil, run the devil down Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Run down the devil, run Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Run down the devil, run the devil down Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Run down the devil, run Run down the devil, run him down, down, down Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/