

Diary of a Madman

Gravediggaz

Intro:lady (They killed my baby.oh god they killed my baby)

judge (Order in the court)

lady (I will make you pay for this you murderers) judge (I said order in the court now! Now, before this court passes judgement, will the four defendents please rise and approach the bench)

gravedigga (Trust me guys, it's all under control the judge is my uncle, he'll take the insanity plea... oh yeah, don't foget my retainer balance.)

judge (Okay, I understand you guys are pleading insanity claiming demonic spirits possessed you to do these hideous murders. Can you please explain to the court how these so called spirits made you into these RAVING MADMEN?!?!)

Verse One: Scientific ShabazzBear witness, as I exercise my exorcism

The evil that lurks within the sin, the terrorism

Possessed by evil spirits, voices from the dead

I come forth with Gravediggaz in a head full of dread

I've been examined ever since I was semen

They took a sonogram and seen the image of a demon

At birth, nurses surrounded me with needles and drugged me all up with the diseases of evil

Grew up in hell, now I dwell in an Islamic Temple

I'm fighting a holy war in the mental

Look deep into my eyes, you'll see visions of death

Possessed by homicide is what I'm obsessed

Giving niggaz brain dimples

Dragging they asses on my hook by they temples

The cause of death is unknown to the cops

Cause when I kill them, I'm not leavin one element to autopsy

First I'll assassinate em

And them I'll cremate them and take all of his fucking ashes and evaporate em

Or creep through the graveyard and hunt down your tombstone

Dig up your skeleton and stomp all your fucking bones

You try to haunt me nigga, I ain't trying to hear it

Buck Buck Buck, I'll give your ass a holy spirit.

gravedigga (stressed full, try to avoid all impure thoughts. I am loosing my mind . . .)judge (Can you please explain to the court when these problems first began?)Verse Two: Prince Rakeem/RzarectorThe year 84, November, day 10

Overwhelmed by the wicked inspirations of an evil djinn

I realize my ideas has spawned for 400 years
Of blood sweat and tears
I saw the torture, brutal murder of my father
So my brain became stained with the horror
I'm having recurring nightmares
Of being soaking wet, strapped down to the electric chair
I got tackled with handcuffs
And shackled in restraint
At the bottom of a holy tabernacle
They gave me nothing to eat for two weeks
And sewed my eyelids open so I couldn't sleep
About to die from thirst, that's when the minister quenched my jaws with a cold glass of vinegar
Upon my wounds they seasoned me with salt
And nailed my hands feet to the form of the cross
AHH! I cry
As the blood drips inside of my eye refusing to die
Visions of hell tormented my face
So I chewed my fucking arm off and made an escape.guy (oh no, me mataron mi amigo, hijo de la gran puta
esos cogines me mataron mi amigo que voy a cerca carajo, cono)judge (Calm down people, please calm down Let us please proceed with the defendant's explanation)Verse Three: Killah PriestEnter the realms of understanding And take good heed
And you could bleed
While I'm standing
Three stages of pure hell
Justifications of red cells
SHH rain drops hits the pelv
Path is dull and narrow
You're stalked by a shadow
I pierced your skull with a fucking arrow
So narrow, only one could enter at a time
Stuck in the center, read the signs
A thousand doors to choose
You better hurry
Don't stop, shit is getting hot as a pot of curry
On your right side there's fire
On you left, deep waters
Watch your step, it's deep waters!
What's that coming through the floor?
It's a claw
PSSH took his fucking ass to the fucking core (AHHH!)Verse Four: Frukwan/GatekeeperStroll through the dark conditions
I stone you till I see sparks of friction
I chop ya like a coal miner
Then combine the drug

And mix it with your blood
Some more
I give you some more
And watch you crawl
Guts hit the floor
Worms that dig your pores
I trick ya, ha, then I'm quick to syringe
Deep into my thoughts and bust out your skin
You scream, portraits of inflictible pain
You can't stand
You're up to your hands in quicksand
You're sinking and sinking deep into the earth
Thoughts was possessed since the first day of birth
My mental says it's my turn to possess the matter
Stab you with a dagger
Of Jacob's Ladder
Thoughts become shattered, confused, and tragic
Fiery thoughts of Gravediggaz . . . judge (GUILTY, next case.)
