

Damn

Matchbox Twenty

This old world well
Don't it make you wanna think damn
This cold girl well
Don't she make you wanna scream, damn What's the matter girl well
Don't you think I'm good enough
This old heart had a whole lot a breakin' down
She's got all these reasons in her head (chorus 1)
Well all that time she knew if I lied
You can bet she will
She's takin' her time 'til I thought I would die
And I can't sit still
Things got turned 'round
Don't know where I started from, damn
Can't eat, can't sleep
Could have been a bigger man, damn
Oh what's the matter girl well don't you think I'm bright enough
This old man had a hard time getting here
You can leave your number at the door (chorus 1) Oh there's nothing at all
Yeah there's nothing at all
Well there's nothing at all
To make her change her mind
Oh to make her change her mind
To make her change her... This old house's been quiet since
You went away, damn
Mixed up fixed out
Don't forget who got you here, damn
Oh what's the matter world well
Don't you see I opened up
This whole part's been played by another man
I pulled out the reason card instead
(chorus 1) She says she can find
The things that make up a lie
Well I can bet she will
She says stay behind, I could stay here all night
I could stay here until Until there's nothing at all
Yeah there's nothing at all
Well there's nothing at all
To make her change her mind
Oh to make her change her mind
To make her change her mind

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>