

Ballad of Wendy Baker

Ben Kweller

I'm so quiet today
I don't feel like me
Someone took your smile away
Now it's gone and I can't see
No one loves till it's gone
I'm the one who likes change
But I feel taken by surprise
Let me rewind the things I said
That it made rain inside your eyes
I keep missing you
My heart knows it's through
Don't wake up, I'm here
To keep you from the storm
I'll soak up your fear
And keep your body warm
I keep missing you
My heart knows it's through
Don't wake up, I'm here
To keep you from the storm
I'll soak up your fear
And keep your body warm
I keep missing you
My heart knows it's through
Nothing to hold on to
My heart knows it's through
