

Let It Come Down

Nick Waterhouse

Threatened by what you're going through
Regretting the things you didn't do
Relying on compensations you've found
Groaning beneath the weight of it
Bemoaning the fickle fate of it
Complying just to keep both feet on the ground
That won't get you any place
Won't excuse you from the race
And when you meet your destiny face to face
There'll be no more
Wrong or right
And no more
Wish I might
And if there's gonna be rain tonight
Let it come down
Let it come down
Let it come down
Let it come down
