

Too Early (feat. Gary Clark Jr.)

The-Dream

You've given up my loving
You've given up my touch
You're leaving me with nothing
Not even a piece of mine
Uh baby, uh baby You've given up my pleasure
You've given up my joy
You leave me with no aspirations
Your love I can't afford
Uh, uh, uh, baby
My heart turn but the pills do
Car no, and the rent due
Know what you done
But I'ma be a fool
To be was to play it cool
So many things I could do to you
Black out, the cops come
Can't see me daughters, can't see my sons
When I come home undone Cause it's too early in the morning
To break love and then to make out
It's too late for pretending
And I'ma stop now
I see my silhouette at the sunset with my top down
See me ride, million dollar benz, real fly
Top down, gold watch, a hunned stacks band on my glock
See me ride, million dollar benz, real fly
Top down, gold watch, a hunned stacks band on my glock
Even pretty girls get left too
Sugar honey, all the time
I used to love to undress you
Now I pay it don't never mind
Uh, uh, uh, baby Gave you all the affection
You gave me 4 years of rain
It's been 40 days and 40 nights
Soaking in pain My heart turn but the pills do
Car no, and the rent due
Baby girl, life's hard and know
You too fast, I can't keep up
So many things I could do to you
Black out, the cops come
Can't see me daughters, can't see my sons
When I come home undone Cause it's too early in the morning
To break love and then to make out

It's too late for pretending
And I'ma stop now
I see my silhouette at the sunset with my top down
See me ride, million dollar benz, real fly
Top down, gold watch, a hunned stacks band on my glock
See me ride, million dollar benz, real fly
Top down, gold watch, a hunned stacks band on my glock

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>