

For You

Killswitch Engage

The finest parts of me
Are only shades of you
Don't put aside
The time slips by
Are only cult of you I give my word to stand the test of time
No more wasted days
The past must bury The line is drawn
I pledge my devotion
There is no turning back
This heart is yours
I sacrifice for you (for you) This is immortal
The finest parts of me
Are only shades of you
Yeah! With each passing day, this heart is endless
No more wasted time
We are immortal The line is drawn
I pledge my devotion
There is no turning back
This heart is yours
I sacrifice for you (for you) This is the everlasting
This is immortal Your words are my inspiration
Your life, the image of perfection
For all you are, for all you've done
I strive to be in your reflection
The line is drawn
I pledge my devotion
There is no turning back
This heart is yours
I sacrifice for you (for you) This is the everlasting
This is immortal
