

Beast (feat. Loick Essien)

Chipmunk

I came from the london underground
Then I took my sound and spread it over ground
Yes I'm leveling over clouds
I'm on top but holding it down
The kings sat in his throne
My heads to big for a crown
L o l you can laugh out loud
S o s they wanna send out
Try call for help or somthing?
Proventions cure my cousin
Prevent this beef from buzzin
I'm the beast that elavated from the street
And Una* yea I must feel I begg you talk to them there weak
Like
Oh I'm coming from under the ground
Tonight I'm comming up to take it down
I'm free coming deep from the sleep
Now I've woken up, that's why they call me the beast baby get to know I roll around grinning my teeth
Yea I am the prettiest beast
I grew out of the grittyest streets
I grew out* a team that started on heat
4 years down the line I'm here
4 years down the line your there
I just laugh at those who strayed off
I'm proof that hardwork pays off
On rined that road I stayed off
I became that beast with this heart
I aim for the movement
See you around stars
You hear me and know that the swaggers to hard
They can hear the fire in me on the stations
Spit to anger or my passion or that bound determanation
Like
Oh I'm coming from under the ground
Tonight I'm comming up to take it down
I'm free coming deep from the sleep
Now I've woken up, that's why they call me the beast baby get to know I was the underdog on the underground
I'm taking over town
They was laughing at me then but you tell me who's laughing now
I'm sitting on hits

Ther babys stuck in dippers sitting on shit
I take the piss
There acctually pissed
Like how did he get that far?
Rar I just kick back and laugh
I'm proof that underdogs can make it
If you get that chance then take it
Don't let talent get wasted
I'm the product of the streets
With some anger and some beats
Presisely why dint they just call in I am beast
LikeEhahah ahhahhhaa
You took me of the leash
HehehaOh I'm coming from under the ground
Tonight I'm comming up to take it down
I'm free coming deep from the sleep
Now I've woken up, that's why they call me the beast baby get to know
