

Lay Myself Down

Mazzy Star

Just like that she follows me
My wings are under her [ true? truth? ]
She says one thing and that's just enough
It doesn't matter how much
Would I forget
Laying myself down
Just to regret
And that's all
Would I forget
I'll go away
I'll never know how far I'll go
She keeps a [diamond?] inside her door
She don't have a clue
Would I forget
Laying myself down
Just to regret
And that's all
Would I forget
Laying myself down
Just to regret
And that's all
And that's all
And that's all
