

Someday

Glass Tiger

Oooo

When I come home you telephone

To say you're waiting for me

I ask you why I hear you cry

But you're still waiting for meSomeday you'll be shedding your tears

To cry over me

Someday I'll be losing this fearNow I'm alone you telephone

To tell me you don't need me

I ask you why you tell me lies

And say the truth would hurt me ohhh

Someday you'll be shedding your tears

To cry over me

Someday I'll be losing this fearOh oh somedayOhh down in the street where lovers meet

That's where I'm waiting for you

In the streets where lovers meet

I'm still waiting for you ooooSomeday you'll be shedding your tears

And then you'll cry over me (Cry over me)

Someday I'll be losing this fear

Ohh someday you'll be shedding your tears

And then you'll cry over me (Cry over me)

Someday I'll be losing this fear

Ooohh
