

Another Statistic

Ace Hood

Another statistic, no, ooh I just wanna live in God's far away from Lucifer Not a slave gold chains, complement the mauler much Rather see me crucified, police are the crucifers Shoot us up and dig a ditch
This 'aint nothin new to us, murder's happened everyday the day Kids on their marry way dying before they 21 bullets never had a name God bless Trevor, Martin in my hoody

another innocent, young brother who met a bullet this poor world its fucked up hard times Tough luck... section 80 food stamps, jobs ever hired us just tryin to fulfill my wish list dont wanna be another statistic No won't be another statistic (we will never give up, we never give in) don't wanna be another statistic, another statistic Martin luther king had a dream and my niggas do tooth while emmett till beat and gouged like a fruit Reason why them youngins is untamable as a youth

And fuck the Government 'cause they try to disguise truth

I send my prayers out to man kind... not enough to graduations

But too many crimes, pay attention as a parent gotta peep the signs

Feeling like a book is corny so they keep a nine

Lord bless 'em got me stress while im raisin mine see in hood people think you'll amount to nothing, funny

I made a million outta ten cents

dont wanna be another statistic

dont wanna be another statistic

dont wanna be another statistic, another statistic

Ooh, niggas getting murdered with burners few in the sternum jot it In my journal, why killers are so determined

I keep on preaching defeating demons in every sermon

Just watch the people that meet and greet ya so arnt worthy

Some friend arnt friends they're dirty, need some detergent

So many tragedies around the world im praying urgent

Im just tryin to become a blessing and serve a purpose

No body's perfect I'm still sinning, just have mercy

While we killing out our own people boston massachusetts, bombed by some thrill seekers, 'it's just so tragic I can barely be witness, many perished i couldnt witness dont wanna be another statistic (pray)
