

...And All the Other Colors

10 Years

And then it's not down to wiles
Hours erode the days away
These years of infinity
Recycle and repeat this
RebirthDon't shoot the messenger
You're the killer at your doorMagnify
The moment's we have lived
Pacify
The past lives we've laid to rest
And all the other colors
Are leaving this body and mind
Behind
Become another level
Leading into the divine
DivineThis crippled reality of tangible fantasies
Can't be, can't be, can't be
Our walls breathe, to a heartbeat
Are you a messenger, or the killer at my door?And all the other colors
Are leaving this body and mind
Behind
Become another level
Leading into the divine
Divine
It's no good, no good, no
It's no good, no good, no good, noAre you looking?
Yes, what should I see?
I've never seen such infinite beauty in my life...
I wish I could talk in Technicolor
I feel sorry for you, if you can't see it than you'll just never know.And all the other colors
Are leaving this body and mind
Behind
Become another level
Leading into the divine
DivineBecome one with the energyAnd all the other colors
Are leaving this body and mind
Behind
