

Love to Love

Jill Scott

Love to love you
Love to see you smile
Love to lay back and love you
Love you
Love to feel your kiss,
Your lips are bliss to me
Love to love you
From your head to your feet
But oh no
Don't mind if we take it nice and slow
Easy does it, steady as we go
I don't mind at all, I don't mind
Love to love you
Love to hear your voice
Love to smile when you speak to me
Love for you to be the one
Who makes my knees weak
If you let me
I will love you so good and right
But oh no
Don't mind if we take it nice and slow
Easy does it, steady as we go
I don't mind at all, I don't mind Oh Oh Oh...
Baby if you could only see
How difficult it is for me
To wait like this all night
Something about this don't seem right
Don't mind if we take it nice and slow
Steady does it, easy as we go
I don't mind at all, at all, at all
I don't mind at all
If I could just get just a little bit
Just a little bit
