

Nobody's Girl

Bonnie Raitt

She don't need anybody to tell her she's pretty
She's heard it every single day of her life
He's got to wonder what she sees in him
When there's so many others standing in line
She gives herself to him
But he's still on the outside
She's alone in this world
She's nobody's girl, she's nobody's girl
She shows up at his doorstep in the middle of the night
Then she disappears for weeks at a time
Just enough to keep him wanting more
But never is he satisfied
And he's left to pick up the pieces
Wondering what does he do this for
She's off in her own little world
She's nobody's girl, she's nobody's girl
He said, "Before I met her, I didn't love nothin'
I could take it and leave it, that was okay but
She brings out a want in me
For things I didn't even know that I need"
She does anything she wants, any time she wants to
With anyone you know she wants it all
Still she gets all upset over the least little thing
Man, you hurt her, it makes you feel so small
And she's a walking contradiction
But I ache for her inside
She's fragile like a string of pearls
She's nobody's girl
She's fragile like a string of pearls
She's nobody's girl, she's nobody's girl
She's nobody's girl

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>