

Zzzzz

The Cab

And I'm up, down
I'm spinning around
High and dry
And kicked to the ground
I'm lost
And I'll never be found My lips were Much too shy
The lines about you
They never rhymed
You said,
I never get things right
(I never said I was the best thing for you)
Baby where'd you go?
I need you here tonight Singing myself to sleep
And you're still my favorite melody
It's been three weeks
How long can this go on?
Singing myself to sleep
And you're haunting every memory Get out, goodbye
Get out of my life
Goodnight And you're hot, cold
Battering my bones
You run wild
I lose control
I miss you
Forever, you'll stay gold
Girl, you know
I'm not getting by
I've lost it
You ripped my mind
Every day is
The darkest of my life
(I never said I was the best thing for you) Baby, where'd you go?
I need you here tonight Singing myself to sleep
And you're still my favorite melody
It's been three weeks
How long can this go on?
Singing myself to sleep
And you're haunting every memory 'Cause I'm drowning
When I close my eyes
And I'm falling
I can't breathe tonight

End of story
I fade to black inside
(I never said I was the best thing for you)'Cause I'm drowning
When I close my eyes
And I'm falling
End of story
I fade to black inside Singing myself to sleep
And you're still my favorite melody
How long can this go on?
Get out of my life'Cause I'm drowning
When I close my eyes
And I'm falling
End of story
