

Stand Up! (feat. Maya Killtron)

Televisor

Caught your eye and I caught your smile there's just one, just one thing to do you won't back down feel you take my hand and ya caught me feeling you you're so calculated and so frustrated got those deadly glances no second chances your touch is viscious but so delicious wishing you were mine I wanna dress you up and I'll take you out
I'm gonna keep you up til the morning light
I wanna dress you up
and I'll take you out
you make me wild
So I take my chance got no room to think twice let my passion talk for two
your touch is viscious but so delicious
wishing you were mine I wanna dress you up
and I'll take you out
I'm gonna keep you up til the morning light
I wanna dress you up
and I'll take you out
you make me wild wishing you were mine I wish you were mine oooooh wishing you were mine wishing you were mine oooooh
I wanna dress you up
and I'll take you out
I'm gonna keep you up til the morning light
I wanna dress you up
and I'll take you out
you make me wild dress you up keep you up
you make me wild
