

Lisa Sawyer

Leon Bridges

Ooh oh ooh oh ooh oh ooh ohhoo
She's born in New OrleansNew OrleansLouisiana Branded with a name- Lisa Sawyer Circa 1963
Grandmother was indian
Her mother's name
Eartha, swift as the wind Fierce as fire
Father's name was Victor Worked two jobs to provide for his flock
She was the youngest of seven Seven
Grew up on Luisa street Chaos around put aside cozy small but a mansion in her eyes Eyes
eyes
Mansion Never had much money money but was filthy rich
The wealth you couldn't get from a dark casino or a lottery ticket
They had love, love, love Rich in love
She ooh oh ooh oh ooh mhmm she had the complexion of the complexion of a sweet praline hair long as the sea heart warm like the Louisiana sun voice like a symphony of the most beautiful instruments woah Beautiful at the age of sixteen sixteen she found christ at an alter all along he was calling her name the gas was smoking from an old wrinkled mane mane mane Gas Woah
She was born in New Orleans
She was born in New Orleans
She was born in New Orleans
New Orleans

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>