

Blur

DevilDriver

It's no wonder that you hang/Together...
Can't keep myself sane/I flee in solace forever/Life's short, so duck for cover Walls have ears, and the ears have eyes They're all allies against the same enemyChorus:
I don't know what the future holds,
If you search for gold, better not sleep aloneI don't know you but I fucking hate you,
And what I am saying is it's been a blur.
I don't know you but I fucking hate you,
And what I am saying it was all a blur.
It's all about the opinion/I'm in solitary confinement/What I am saying is/You and yours will face the judgement/Walls have ears, and the ears have eyes/They're all allies against the same enemyChorusSelf-loathing son of a bitch/Pick up the pace, pick up the paceObliterate the suffering now/This is a sacrifice/Burn it all away, I'll burn it all down Separate the arrogantsObliterate the suffering/This is a sacrifice Burn it all away, I'll burn it all down/Separate the arroganceI don't know you but I fucking hate you You're a marked man, a marked man You're a marked man, a marked manI don't know you, I fucking hate you I don't know you, I fucking hate you.
