

There's a Face

Eve 6

There's a face I know too well
See it every time I look in the mirror
No I don't kiss and tell
I'll tell you after I've betrayed you
Supersonic boy sweatin' sin
The pillar that I'm meltin' on will prove you wrong
Keep your lips sealed this just in
You're speedin' up the ticker of a walkin' time bomb
Time's up, stand up, face the muzak
Smile wide, step outside
Click your sticks and cast a spell
That'll suck my saliva like water from a well
I try to do what's right, what's right
Ain't right enough for you tonight
I see, you're displeased a middle finger response
I'll try to appease
I'm sorry don't be mad
But ask me what I'm sorry for and I won't have an answer
(I won't have an answer)
Time's up stand up, and face the muzak
Smile wide, step outside
Look me in the eye and let 'em flow again
(Look me in the eye)
Lies on the rocks with a twist of desperation
Look me in the eye and let 'em flow again
(Look me in the eye)
Lies on the rocks with a twist of desperation
Look me in the eye and let 'em flow again
(Look me in the eye)
Lies on the rocks with a twist of desperation
Look me in the eye and let 'em flow again
(Look me in the eye)
Lies on, lies on, lies
Time's up, stand up, face the muzak
(Face the muzak)
Smile wide, step outside, face the muzak
Yea, yea
Times up, stand up, face the muzak
(Face the muzak)
Smile wide, step outside
There's a face I know too well
See it every time I look in the mirror
No I don't kiss and tell
I'll tell you after I betrayed you
