

I Found Someone

Blake Shelton

I picked up the phone she said, "hey it's me" i know it feels like forever since i heard your voice but i guess that's how it had to be so we talked a while
'till she said i better go but before we hung up she said there's something you need to know i found someone it just happened out of the blue even though i'm moving on,
it don't mean that i don't still love you you'll always have a place here in my heart but somewhere in this new life i've begun
well i wasn't surprised but still, it hit me kinda hard it's hard to believe a little space and time could turn into miles and worlds apart i said "i'm happy for you you deserve the very best" since you've been gone i've done some praying and some searching for myself and i found someone it just happened out of the blue
even though i'm moving on,
but somewhere in this new life i've begun i found someone but it took tears and time down on my knees and it's not who you'd ever guess or who i'd dreamed it'd be but in the mirror one morning looking back at me i found someone it just happened out of the blue and it took everything i had it took me losing you but you'll always have a place here in my heart somewhere in this new life i've begun looking for my place under the sun
