

To Whom It May Concern

The Civil Wars

Why are you so far from me?
In my arms is where you ought to be. How long will you make me wait? I don't know how much more I can take. I missed you But I haven't met you Oh but I want to How I do Slowly counting down the days 'til I finally know your name
Oooh, the way your hand feels round my waist
the way you laugh
the way your kisses taste
I missed you
But I haven't met you
Oh but I want to
How I do
How I do...
I've missed you
But I haven't met you
Oh I missed you
But I haven't met you
Oh but I want to
Oh how I want to
Dear, whoever you might be
I'm still waiting patiently.
