

Tree of Ages

Amorphis

Somewhere there's a tree of ages
Heavens hanging from its branches
Cradling worlds beneath its shadows
Its seeds give birth to tomorrow
Universes coil its trunk
And heavens rush above its crown
It dances without moving
It is the tree of agesIt is the tree of ages
Like our promises and wishes
Die its flowers along with its leaves
Like drops of blood the leaf buds open
Like sighs the fruit falls down
Universes coil its trunk
And dawn shimmers on its crown
Day turns to gold its leaves
It is the tree of agesIt is the tree of agesNight calls the solitary god
Night falls all lights shall bow in awe
Night calls the solitary god
Night falls all lights shall bow in awe
Night calls the solitary god
Night falls and these lights shall bow in awe
