

Sky Priority

Rod Wave

You know it hurt me to my heart the way our love ended
I blame you, you the reason I don't trust bitches
My heart so cold, I done been crossed, I don't trust niggas
He say my name, he get knocked off just like that one nigga
Mook got the keys jumping
Yeah yeah Okay, and that's how it be
I ain't been getting no sleep, I been running these streets
I ain't been home in two weeks, I been looking for piece
California on the beach, I'm low key in a Jeep
Tryna' catch a better vibe
Cause I get loss in my thoughts and I cry
Keep my mouth closed, it be too much on my mind
Don't nobody care, I won't dare waste my time
Too much pain in my body, I need surgery
Won't put cocaine in his body, He take perky's
I had a dream 'bout Kareem and it hurt me
Sometimes I sit and think about Ray like "Was it worth it?"
I heard he had plans on leavin' his brains on the ceilin'
He had a talk with his pops and it healed him
He said "You go out like a coward if you end it"
"You came too far you can't like back you got to finish"
Yeah On the road doin' shows all alone
In another nigga city livin' wrong
Pray to God that I can make it back home
Even if I don't it won't be long
I'll fly high with my God
Soul been broke in half I got too many scars
Put my trust in em' and they broke my heart
Death's got to be easy cause life is hard
Yeah
Death's got to be easy cause life is hard
Death's got to be easy cause life is harder On the road doin' shows all alone
In another nigga city livin' wrong
Pray to God that I can make it back home
Even if I don't it won't be long
I'll fly high with my God
Soul been broke in half I got too many scars
Put my trust in em' and they broke my heart Death's got to be easy cause life is hard
I'll fly high with my God
Soul been broke in half I got too many scars
Put my trust in em' and they broke my heart (Death's got to be easy cause life is hard)

Death's got to be easy cause life is hard
