I Hope Tomorrow Is Like Today

Guster

I'm awake, you're still sleeping The sun will rise like yesterday Everything that we are now Is everything we can't let go Or it's gone forever, far awayI hope tomorrow is like today Like todayDon't you go away tomorrow I don't think I could handle that You're probably dreaming that you're flying on And then you start to fall but then you rise And shine forever, don't go awayI hope tomorrow is like today I hope tomorrow is like today Like today, like today I hope tomorrow is like today I hope tomorrow is like today I hope tomorrow is like today Like today
