

The Emerald Law (feat. Wino)

Probot

I do not die, but awaken from the dream I lived
Well, as above, so below, be revealed, the truth be known
Questions, pieces strewn, shrouded answers hewn
With love so grow, beneath his paws, the tablets glow Behold, the falcon, surveys the horizon
Great scribe let us see, your runes of mystery
Serpent, shares your name, the keeper of emerald name
Prevail the law of three, the Goddess guides humanity He weighs, your heart, a life pure a life false
And they learn the sword, deceived by false words
And their greed and their lies, 'cause them to be blind
Well, and so become, prevail the law of one
And so become, the falcon
And so become, the falcon And now the souls they swing
Swirl in the cosmic ring
Creations spark it has no time
Rejoin the realm of divine Enthroned true one, he sails into the sun
Falcon at the helm, glides through the nether realm
Be shown unseal, the laws have been concealed
Earthly majesty, tables of destiny Bloodline, blood trail, the truth becomes the grail
So far, so near, cloaked in the mists of fear
Above, below, what's hidden will be shown
Divine majesty, true scrolls of destiny
What's concealed will be revealed
Those you see will be received
The law of three, humanity
The law of one, into the sun
