

Flickering (feat. JFDR)

Lapalux

A meadow is a flood of straws
Each tied to the same ground
Staring out, the same wide sky Silently awake
Wonder if I'm dreaming
Still alive, just barely there
But I'm drifting
I know there's a light at the end, somewhere
Flickering
Each stroke is calling single thoughts, single thoughts
Each step is a beating heart
Each tied to the same path Silently awake
Wonder if I'm dreaming
Still alive, just barely there
But I'm drifting
I know there's a light at the end, somewhere
Flickering Flickering Flickering Flickering
