Lapalux

A meadow is a flood of straws Each tied to the same ground Staring out, the same wide skySilently awake Wonder if I'm dreaming Still alive, just barely there But I'm drifting I know there's a light at the end, somewhere Flickering Each stroke is calling single thoughts, single thoughts Each step is a beating heart Each tied to the same pathSilently awake Wonder if I'm dreaming Still alive, just barely there But I'm drifting I know there's a light at the end, somewhere FlickeringFlickeringFlickering Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
