Do You See

Warren G

The Blues has always been totally American As American as apple pie, as American as the Blues As American as apple pie, the question is why? Why should the Blues be so at home here Well, America provided the atmosphereYou don't see what I see Every day as Warren G I take a look over my shoulder, as I get older Gettin' tired of mothafuckas sayin', "Warren I told ya" You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these years With these funny-bunny niggaz, ain't shit changin' Got my mama wonderin' if I'm gang-bangin' But I don't pay attention to these father figures I just handle mine and I'm rollin' with my niggaz Off to the V.I.P., you see, Snoop Dogg and Warren G Unbelievable how time just flies Right before your eyes, but you don't recognize Now who's the real victim, can you answer that? The nigga that's jackin', or the fool gettin' jacked, yeahYou don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these yearsYou don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these years Another sunny day, another bright blue sky Another day, another muthafucka die These are the things I went through when I was growin' up There's only one hood and niggas shit be throwin' up And I knew it, there really ain't nothin' to it Thinkin' every fool's gotta go through it Now let's go back, how far? Back in time Draggin' to these hookas tryin' to mack for mineI remember when we all used to stop at the spot Back then my nigga-name was Snoop Rock It was all so clear Eighty-seven, eighty-eight, then eighty-nine's the year You say, "Everywhere we roll, you can say we roll thick" Way back then two one three was the click Somethin' to stay paid I was just a young hog Warren G, Snoop Rock and Nate DoggYou don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear

But it's so hard to live through these years You don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these years You make me wanna holler, get out the game Too many muthafuckas know my name While Snoop Dogg's servin' time up in Wayside I puts it down on the street, don't try to take mine I had to reassure the homie that he wasn't alone We'd talk and him and Nate'd conversate on the phone He kept sayin', "Nigga, it won't be long Before a little skinny nigga like me'll be home"I said, "Snoop, things done change, it's not the same We need to get about the game" 'Cuz we can get paid in a different way Wit you kickin' dope rhymes and I D.J. Well as time goes past, slowly we try to make it But things are gettin' hectic, I just can't take it Should I A, go back to slangin' dope? Or should I B, maintain and try to cope? Or should I C, just get crazy and wild? But no I chose D, create the G-Child It's been on ever since with me and Mista Grimm This shit is gettin' so hectic that I can't even trust him now What would you do for a Warren G cut? Would you act the fool and nut the fuck up? Back the fuck up, act the fuck up? Niggaz talk shit they get smacked the fuck up, straight upYou don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these years You don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these years You don't see what I see Every day as Warren G You don't hear what I hear But it's so hard to live through these years You don't see what I see Every day as Warren G Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
