

Lonely

Anderson East

I called just to hear your voice.
Didn't say I was sorry for leaving.
Wasn't ready for what you had to say, that you still love me, you're dying everyday.
Wouldn't be lonely if I crawl home now.
Wouldn't be lonely if I fix the faults I have.
Wouldn't be lonely if time takes us back.
Wouldn't be lonely.
Wouldn't be lonely, because of me.
And I can feel the tension through the lines, your sigh says enough.
Don't know why there was a choice between two roads, but even know, oh, I still can't let her go.
Wouldn't be lonely if I crawl home now.
Wouldn't be lonely if I fix the faults I have.
Wouldn't be lonely if time takes us back.
Wouldn't be lonely.
Wouldn't be lonely, because of me.
So am I crazy for leaving, am I crazy for stealing your heart away?
No!
I wouldn't be lonely if I crawled on back.
I wouldn't be lonely if I fix the faults I have.
I wouldn't be lonely if time would take us back.
Oh, I wouldn't be lonely.
I wouldn't be lonely, because of me.
Oh, because of me.
