

Fingertips

Poe

...Your fingertips
Sometimes I feel it burning
That deep & primal yearning
I feel it burn, burn, burning
I try to live without it
But then I think about those fingertips,
Those fingertips, those fingertips
Anyone will do, anyone will do
Could be you It's in the way they move, and
They catch that simple groove, and
They tell a story all there own about the human heart alone
I try to get a grip but,
I find I always slip on fingertips
Those fingertips
Those fingertips
Anyone will do, anyone will do,
Could be you
Anyone will do, anyone will do,
Could be you Sometimes I get so lonely
The time it passes slowly
So, so, so, slowly I know I'm just a fool 'cause
They're writing all the rules
Those fingertips
Those fingertips
Those fingertips Anyone will do, anyone will do,
Could be you Whoever, whoever you are
I got my light on
Whenever, wherever you can
I'll be there I swear
Whoever, whoever you are
I got my light on
Whenever, whenever you can
I'll be there I swear
I swear
Anyone will do, could be you
Anyone, anyone will do, could be you
Anyone will do,
Anyone will do, could be you Whoever, whoever you are
I got my light on
Whenever, wherever you can
I'll be there I swear Let it be me
Let me be your love...
