

We Own Tonight

New Kids On the Block

Oh oh oh
Wait, change nothing This moment feels so perfect Let's just make it something I know that you deserve it Like a candle that's burning in the wind We're burning fast let the world keep on turning this chance might be the last
Don't let it go It's the moment we've been waiting for
'till tomorrow we're invisible
And I promise not to leave your side
'cause we own
we own tonight
Doesn't matter what we did before nothing telling me it's beautiful like here right now being lost to you and I
We own tonight
We own tonight We own tonight Stop, for a minute Can you feel the magic?
'cause tonight there's no limit if you want it you can have it.
Like a candle that's burning in the wind we are burning fast
let the world keep on turning this chance could be the last Don't let it go It's the moment we've been waiting for
'till tomorrow we're invisible
And I promise not to leave your side
'cause we own
we own tonight
Doesn't matter what we did before
nothing telling me it's beautiful
like here right now being lost to you and I
We own tonight
I don't want this feeling to end to let the sun rise begin
To keep you here in my arms I'll do anything
let the world keep on turning
this chance might be the last
Don't let it go It's the moment we've been waiting for
'till tomorrow we're invisible
And I promise not to leave your side

'cause we own
we own tonight
Doesn't matter what we did before
like here right now being lost to you and I
We own tonight
We own tonight
We own tonight
(Don't let it go)
We own tonight
We own tonight
We own tonight
