Fkn Around (feat. Megan Thee Stallion)

Phony Ppl

You've got a man, but you're messin' around
Risking it all baby just to get down
You've got a man, but you're messin' aroundRisking it all baby, just to get downDon't know if you know just what you're starting
But I can see you like to play with fire, darling
Your man just hit the bar to grab a chalice for you two
He turned his back for just a second, look at what you do
Sending me the supersonic signal
You ain't lay a finger, but I feel you
Independent woman, I won't tell you how to act
But you and I both know we could be gone 'fore he gets backYou've got a man, but you're messin' around
Risking it all baby just to get down
Don't ask questions if we just sexing
I got situations, no confirmations
Everybody wanna know who Megan dating Well that depends on whatever the day is
I got me a European papi out in Italy
And he like to model but he always love to picture meFlying overseas in these Giuseppes
Send a pic from the back just to give him a tease
I keep a man in Texas, that where the best is Down South daddy and he cool, never stress me
West coast thang, I'm in love with his slang
Oh I love a thug, keep it hood when we bang, ayyI got a man but I'm messing around
'Cause I'm young and can't be tied down
He got a girl, she got nothing on me
But we young so we both do the same thing
You've got a man, but you're messin' around
I got a man but I'm messin' around
'Cause I'm young and can't be tied down
Risking it all baby, just to get down
He got a girl, she got nothing on me
Because I'm young, and we both do the same thingYou know, I know, you're so wrong for What we've been doing, this place seems to ruin
This love thang
You know that I know, you're so wrong for
What we've been doing this place seems to ruin
This love thang
(But I'm only half as wrong as you)You've got a man, but you're messin' around
You've got a man, but you're messin' around
Risking it all baby, just to get down
