

Your Love Is Strong

Cory Asbury

Strong enough to calm the storms
Of fear and unbelief
Fierce enough to break the cords
Of death that clung to me
I have come to know a love
Whose power has overcome every insecurity
Heaven moves and demons flee now
As I lift my voice to sing Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Close enough to hold me near
When fear is crippling
Safe enough to be my home
When my world is crumbling
I have come to know a love
Stronger than the grave, that in my darkest hour
Raised me up from death to life now
In resurrection power Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Your love, it vanquished all my enemies
It broke the cage that silenced me
And set this songbird free
I sing, for all the love You've given me
Rejoice because You've chosen me
And called this orphan home Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
Oh, Your love is strong
