

Superman

Tarrus Riley

Ooohhh...

Shooooo...

Do, do, do, do, do, dooo...I'm a superman thanks to Lois Lane

Kissed away my problems when I went insane

Took me from the depths when I lost my name (oooh)

Give me something I could live for

Now everyone is wondering what's the change

They don't recognize I have so much to say

And I never thought someone could love someone

So much that they give up on everything

Jah knooooow...

I will be there when you need me

I will be there when you cry baby

I will be there when you need someone to tell you

That you're beautiful baby I will be there when you need someone to run with

I will be there when you need someone to dance with

I'm your lover till the sky turn gray girl

Cause you're beautiful baby Yes, you're beautiful

Oh you're beautiful

Yes, you're beautiful baby

Yes, you're beautiful

Yes, you're beautiful

Yes, you're beautiful baby

Feel butterflies when I'm in your hands

You can turn the pavement into white sand

You can make a moment, a memory in a glance

And I can't believe anyone else

And everybody's talking

You're always shining

You never stop glistening baby

And I never thought someone could love someone

So much that they give up on everything

Jah knooooow...I will be there when you need me

I will be there when you cry baby

I will be there when you need someone to tell you

That you're beautiful baby I will be there when you need someone to run with

I will be there when you need someone to dance with

I'm your lover till the sky turn gray girl

Cause you're beautiful baby Till it's beautiful

Oh you're beautiful

Yes, you're beautiful baby

Yes, you're beautiful

Yes, you're beautiful
You're beautiful baby(Beautiful)
Beautiful...
(Beautiful)
Beautiful... oohThere's a million people underneath the sun
That can find a million more but never find the one
There's a girl who did this and a socialite
Was on magazines, was the shy type
I'm a superman thanks to Lois Lane
Kissed away my problems when I went insane
And I never thought someone could love someone
So much that they give up on everything
Ooh-aah...I will be there when you need me
I will be there when you cry baby
I will be there when you need someone to tell you
That you're beautiful babyI will be there when you need someone to run with
I will be there when you need someone to dance with
I'm your lover till the sky turn yeah man
Cause you're beautiful babyTill it's beautiful
Yes, you're beautiful
You're beautiful baby
Yes, you're beautiful
Oh You're beautiful
Yes, you're beautiful babyI will be there when you need me
I will be there when you cry baby
I will be there when you need someone to tell you
That you're beautiful baby
Baby...
