Malleus Maleficarum

AFI

Open my eyes as I submerge And I won't deny what I've been since birth I'll die drowned by your standardsBreathe in the life of the summer's death As the orange and red breathe their first breath So welcome as they're burning throughWe all begin to burn Autumn's flame dances in my eyes Set alight for all we've learned My ashes fallingMy skin is singed but it heals my heart And with glowing pride I'll wear my scars Honored by your hatredLeaves fall, we arise again And the end impending, it will begin So welcome as it's burning through We all begin to burn Autumn's flame dances in my eyes Set alight for all we've learned My ashes falling, can you feel me?Ashes fall when I'm rising up again Ashes fall when I'm rising up again Ashes fall when I'm rising up again Ashes fall when I'm rising up againAshes fall when I'm rising up again Ashes fall when I'm rising up again Ashes fall when I'm rising up again Ashes fall, ashes fallFall, fall Ashes fall As we all Arise We all begin to burn Autumn's flame dances in my eyes Set alight for all we've learned My ashes falling, can you feel me?
