Valentine

Fiona Apple

You didn't see my valentine I sent it via pantomime While you were watchin' someone else I stared at you and cut myselfIt's all I'll do 'cause I'm not free A fugitive too dull too flee I'm amorous but out of reach A still life drawing of a peachI'm a tulip in a cup I stand no chance of growing up I've made my peace I'm dead, I'm done I watched you live to have my fun I root for you, I love you You, you, you I root for you, I love you You, you, youI made it to a dinner date My teardrops seasoned every plate I tried to dance but lost my nerve I cramped up in the learning curveI'm a tulip in a cup I stand no chance of growing up I'm resigned to sail on through In the wake of tales of you I root for you, I love you You, you, you I root for you, I love you You, you, you I root for you, I love you You, you, you You, you, you, you I root for you, I love you You, you, you

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/