Holding On (feat. Josef Salvat & Niia)

Tourist

Holding on
Holding onHotter than the sun, burning me deep
Saying your name leaves me weak
Boy, I need you
Ghost

Standing in the dark, half in love With all I need, but it's not enough

You won't leave

Ghost

Cause I'm still holding onto your body
Still holding onto your body
I've found another man but
You keep haunting me
And I'm still holding onto your body

Still holding onto your body
Whenever I open my eyes

It's you I want to seeStaring back at me, staring back at me
Whenever I open my eyes, it's you that I want to see
Holding onto my body, holding onto my body
I've found another girl but you keep haunting me

I'm holding onto us
I'm holding onto us

I'm still connected to our love

Nothing will ever be enough

You've got me holding onto us You've got me holding onto us

I'm still connected to our love

Nothing will ever be enoughNothing feels the same, since I found you Everything changed, my heart got moved

Now I'm so far

From home

Standing in the dark, half in love With all I need, it's not enough

You won't leave

My ghostCause I'm still holdingonto your body

Still holding onto your body

I've found another girl but

You keep haunting me

And I'm still holding onto your body

Still holding onto your body

Whenever I open my eyes

It's you I want to seeYou've got me holding onto us

You've got me holding onto us

I'm still connected to our love

Nothing will ever be enough

You've got me holding onto us

You've got me holding onto us

I'm still connected to our love

Nothing will ever be enough I'm holding onto us

I'm holding onto us

I'm still connected to our love

Nothing will ever be enough

Holding onto us

Holding onto us

Holding onto us

Holding onto usHolding onto us

Holding onto us

Holding onto us

Holding onto us
