Jim Beam and the Coon Ass

Corrosion of Conformity

I feel that south wind blowin'
Its telling me a sin
I hear that devil howlin'
Howlin' on me again
But that's alright
That's alright, that's alright
That's alright little mama

That friend o'mine your mineI hear that bottle knockin'

Knockin' at my door He left me up in Mempville

Don't come around no more

But that's OK

That's OK, that's OK

That's OK little mama

That goddamn bottles here to stay

Take me home Johnny!

I hear that city callin'

Callin' me back home

I hear that city callin'

It won't leave me alone

But that's alright

That's alright, that's alright

That's alright little mama

That steamer leaves tomorrow night

That's alright little mama

That steamer leaves tomorrow nightDamn sure!You piece of shit... Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
