Ljay Currie

they cant find you on my time line don't know what it is but they nosy as fuck they all in my biz so that they can discuss who i touch who i what for you you came with cause even though i don't claim shit I've been rockin with the same chick whose name will remain name less i love our relationship its so naughty but yeah we nobody your friends cause i know you're not looking for somebody and that's why we nobody they think your so shy(shy) no they don't know if we don't show it they think your so shy(shy) but little do they know how it really go
