

Kali Yuga (feat. Clams Casino)

Ghostmane

[Verse]

I used to have a bitch
Now she ain't shit
I'm burn a blacktrack jacket
That im laying in
I got a new one cause I finally got a little ends
Just leave lone
Leave me lone
Trying not to sin
I'm trying to find my way up out of this fucking rut I'm in
I thought about taking my life [?]
I'm reading shit from kids that tell me they just want to quit
You're not alone
Not alone
I feel like dyin'
I'm waking up I gotta try and find a reason why
To get up out my sheets and going outside to enjoy life
Please tell me why I'm feeling this way
On the outside I look so fine
But what goes up inevitably comes down and [?]
You think I worship Satan?
Bitch, I am a [?]
You walk around the world like "can't close my mind, open eyes"
I'm sick of here [?] scream at the sky
I know nobody's present but it doesn't hurt to try
[Hook]
No love
No life
Dig the abyss
I cannot sleep till a motherfucker six feet deep
I'ma keep low key
No love
No life
Never mind, cremate me
Scatter my ashes all over the bottom of the Caribbean Sea
No love
No life
Dig the abyss
I cannot sleep till a motherfucker six feet deep
I'ma keep low key
No love
No life

Never mind, cremate me
Scatter my ashes all over the bottom of the Caribbean Sea
