

I Can't Wait Much Longer (Bob Harris Session)

Robin Trower

Now baby needs diamond sky
Caviar and moonlight wine
She hasn't yet made up her mind
If she'll take me I see my love stoned and deep
Wrap my future at your feet
For simple life, for love asleep
You can take me 'Cause everyday gets stronger
And everyday it grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer
Round and round in dreams I go
Set me free or tie the bow
Up or down, let me know
But don't ignore me 'Cause everyday gets stronger
And everyday it grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer Everyday gets stronger
And everyday it grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer Now listen, I'll get my coat and catch a train
Make my way to New Orleans
Find seven houses soaked in gin
To console me 'Cause everyday gets stronger
And everyday it grows and grows
And I can't wait much longer
Everyday gets stronger
And everyday it grows and grows
I can't wait much longer Everyday gets stronger
And everyday it grows and grows
I can't wait much longer
