

Salvation

Tash Sultana

I guess I'm just changing with the wind, mm
I'm turning in, a different direction, again and again and again
No, I'm sorry, I don't have to spell it out for you my friend
'Cause I just got a few things I gotta get off my chest
I know it's hard to digest
Why don't you come inside and pull up a chair
Turn the music up loud and sit over there
Don't you see I got myself into a bit of a pickle over here
Why don't you invite the devil inside to dance around my living room
I only got a table for two
I put my face inside my hands
'Cause I fucking hate the things you do
I said the road is long
Keep carrying on
I don't need your loving for my salvation
I found myself between the dirt and desperation
But I don't need you for my own validation
I said the road is long
Keep carrying on
I don't need your loving for my salvation
I found myself between the dirt and desperation
But I don't need you for my own validation Oh, oh, ohh
Oh, oh, oh, yeah
Oh, oh, ohh
Oh, oh, oh, yeah
Picture perfect memory
I put it in your pocket
Oh no, I guess you forgot it
Cut your hair it all feels the same
I'm burning the clothes you wear
It doesn't change the game
I'm staring deep into the dancing flame
I let the fire fuel your soul it doesn't hide the shame
And oh, the things that I would do
To give away the pain 'Cause every time I call, I'm getting to the message tone
And I've been sitting here waiting by the telephone
Calculating reason in my mind
All night long
I guess it goes on and on
And I thought that you might get the picture that I'm moving forward with my life
When I left nothing for you to get by I said the road is long

Keep carrying on
I don't need your loving for my salvation
I found myself between the dirt and desperation
But I don't need you for my own validation
I said the road is long
Keep carrying on
I don't need your loving for my salvation
I found myself between the dirt and desperation
But I don't need you for my own validation Oh, oh, ohh
Oh, oh, oh, yeah
Oh, oh, ohh
Oh, oh, oh, yeah I said the road is long
Keep carrying on
I don't need your loving for my salvation
I found myself between the dirt and desperation
But I don't need you for my own validation
I said the road is long
Keep carrying on
I don't need your loving for my salvation
I found myself between the dirt and desperation
But I don't need you for my own validation

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>