

Good Kinda Bad

Canaan Smith

Cross around your neck,
Waited to dancing, girl's flirting with the dirty-side
With the cotton dress is hiding the tattoo
You want somebody to find Bought you a shot a whiskey,
Thought you'd be sippin it...
When I turned around you'd already finished it, finished it yea You're the good, you're the good,
you're the good kinda bad
You're the best side of trouble I'd ever had
Got a mild wild, wild side of beautiful crazy
Where ever you wanna take me
I'm here for a ride on the dangerous side
I'm ready for the devil and angel smile
I can see you being the fix that I've gotta have Cuz girl you're the good kinda bad
You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad yeah
2 Your baby boy in town,
Took look around your finger, but there aint no diamond ring
Kinda like the thought of forever
But you love that freedom thing,
Strap fallin off your shoulder
Love the way you just leave it there
I move in just a little closer think I take that there yeah You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad
You're the best side of trouble id ever had
Got a mild wild, wild side of beautiful crazy
Where ever you wanna take me
I'm here for a ride on the dangerous side
I'm ready for the devil and angel smile
I can see you being the fix that I've gotta have
Cuz girl you're the good kinda bad
Yeah
Your a little lemonade and a lot of Jack Daniels
I want all I can handle... You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad
You're the best side of trouble I'd ever had
Got a mild wild, wild side of beautiful crazy
Where ever you wanna take me
I'm here for a ride on the dangerous side
I'm ready for the devil and angel smile
I can see you being the fix that I've gotta have Cuz girl you're the good kinda bad You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad
yeah

You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad baby
You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad
Good kinda bad
Where ever you wanna take me
You're the good, you're the good, you're the good kinda bad Oooo you kinda bad...
I see you being the best that I've gotta have.
