Til The Evening

HONNE

We've got nowhere to go We've got time to waste We've got nothing to show for it Just a bitter tasteWe'll follow the sun, and the sun will go from east to west We wanna cook on gas, but we're not alight So we're not there yetWe can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We'll run until we get there Yeah stick it to the next man stopping us We'll make it a better place, yeah Yeah fingers crossed for the both of usWe've got no cares in the world No need to break a cold sweat It ain't gonna come to us anytime soon So we better go getWe'll follow the sun, and the sun will go from east to west We wanna cook on gas, but we're not alight So we're not there yetWe'll run until we get there Yeah stick it to the next man stopping us We'll make it a better place, yeah Yeah fingers crossed for the both of us We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/

I'll wake up and you'll be mine