

The Same Song

The Paragons

It's the same song
But a different meaning I get
It's the same song
But the words just don't seem the same
As I dance on the floor
I don't want to dance anymore
It's the same song
But a different feeling I get
It's the same walk
Walking down the same old street
It's the same walk
But my feet get weary and weak
As I walk down the street
Seeing the people we used to meet
It's the same walk
But my feet get weary and weak
As I dance on the floor
I don't want to dance anymore
It's the same song
But a different feeling I get
It's the same song
But a different feeling I get...
