

Babysit

Caroline Romano

All of your whining and meltdowns
I see you sneaking around
Think I ain't noticing
Noticing you Tempering with my short temper
Feels like it's lasting forever
Gotta know
Gotta know what you're up to I don't trust you when you say you're with the guys
I've seen it once or twice
I know it when you lie
I've heard it all before, so don't apologize
Picking up the pieces of my peace of mind
I, yeah, I
I don't know what it takes
To tame the one
Who's always misbehaving
Know you got some growing up to do
This kinda love has got its complications
That don't mean these rules were made for breaking
I feel like I'm babysitting you Your trickery and all your teardrops
Giving me all kinds of mad thoughts
I don't know what I was thinking with you
Holding on when I should let go
Needing some time to be alone
Stuck between wanting and what I should do Guess I have to be around to supervise
Seen it a thousand times, I hate it when you cry
Heard it all before, so don't apologize
Picking up the pieces of my peace of mind
I, yeah, I
I don't know what it takes
To tame the one
Who's always misbehaving
Know you got some growing up to do
This kinda love has got its complications
That don't mean these rules were made for breaking
I feel like I'm babysitting you I don't trust you when you say you're with the guys
I've seen it once or twice
I know it when you lie
I've heard it all before, so don't apologize
Picking up the pieces of my peace of mind I, yeah, I
I don't know what it takes
To tame the one
Who's always misbehaving

Know you got some growing up to do
This kinda love has got its complications
That don't mean these rules were made for breaking
I feel like I'm babysitting you
I feel like I'm babysitting you
