

Leftovers

Dennis Lloyd

Take away my eyes
Take away my ears
Take it all away from me Take away my arms
Take away my knees
You can blame it all on me Take away my heart
Take away my soul
Take it all away from me Take away my dreams
Take away my goals
You can blame it all on me
I'm a mess and I will always be
Do you want to stick around and see me drown?
Fuck, I'm about to lose it all
I'm a drunk and I will always be
Beggin baby take my hand before I fall back down
Fuck, I'm about to lose it all Oh baby, won't you come back for me? Take away my shirt
Take away my shoes
Take it all away from me
Take away my guilt
Take away my shame
You can blame it all on me Take away my love
Take away my hate
Take it all away from me
Take away my fears
Take away my fate
You can blame it all on me
I'm a mess and I will always be
Do you want to stick around and see me drown?
Fuck, I'm about to lose it all
I'm a drunk and I will always be
Beggin baby take my hand before I fall back down
Fuck, I'm about to lose it all Oh baby, won't you come back for me?
