

God Kicks

Therapy?

Naked as I am, I'm a happy, sad bulk of a man
And I can show you everything, but I'm just doing the best that I can
And there are no escapes, come join me in my world
And the exits are all blocked off, my girl
You were very young when the law came to take you away
You had that stuff in your hair, get you in troubles some day
There's no let up, or no respite, no answers in any way
God bless you
God kicks with both feet, God kicks with both feet
God kicks with both feet and keeps his shoes clean
God kicks with both feet, God kicks with both feet
God kicks with both feet and keeps his shoes clean
