

Toes

Glass Animals

Put your hand down, boy
Welcome to my zoo
Put your head inside
My big black wild while
I can still help you See the snake-baboon
Funky, chic, & smooth
Honey, can you spy
The divine ape-swine
'Cause he can see you I'm a man, I'm a twisted fool
My hands are twisted, too
5 fingers, 2 black hooves
I'm a man, don't spin me a lie
Got toes, & I can smile
I'm crooked but upright
& all I ever want
Is just a little love
I said in purrs under the palms
And all I ever want is breaking me apart
I said to the thing that I once was I'm a man, I'm a twisted fool
My hands are twisted too
5 fingers, 2 black hooves
I'm a man, don't spin me a lie
Got toes, & I can smile
I'm crooked but upright To the left now, boy
Underneath the moon
By the thick tan sand
& the tall thin grass
One more thing for you
See the distant flume
In the sleepy dunes
Makes my nerves clench close
& my bones go cold
When I see that room & all I ever want
Is just a little love
I said in purrs under the palms
& all I ever want
Is breaking me apart
I'm a man, I'm a twisted fool
My hands are twisted too
5 fingers, 2 black hooves
I'm a man, don't spin me a lie
Got toes, & I can smile

I'm crooked but upright
