

All Blues

Miles Davis & John Coltrane

The sea, the sky, the you and I
The sea, the sky, for you and I
I'll know we're all blues
All Shades, all hues, all blues Some blues are sad
But some are glad,
Dark-sad or bright-gald
They're all blues
All shades, all hues, all blues The color of colors
The blues are more than a color
They're a moan of pain
A Taste of strife
And a sad refrain
A game which lif is pplayin'
Blues can be the livin' dues
We're all a-payin'
Yeah, Oh Lord In a rainbow
A summer day that's fair
A parayer is prayed
A lament that's made BREAKS Some shade of blues is there;
Blue heaven's hue,
They're all blues! INSTRUMENTAL Talkin' 'bout the sea and the sky
And i'm talkin' 'bout you and I
The sea, the sky
For you and I
And I know we're all blues
All shades,
All hues,
All blues Sea, sky, you and I
See the sky, you and I
All Blues
All shades, all hues, all blues

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>